

Old Christians minors win

—B. SKELLY EXCELS

OLD CHRISTIANS 3-4;

PATRICKSWELL 2-0

Old Christians defeated Patrickswell in the third round of the minor hurling league in Rathbane on Monday evening last. Both sides served up a great hour's hurling which was in keeping with the usual high standard that both sides have produced whenever they met over the past few years.

Old Christians were ahead at half-time by 2-3 to 1-0. Patrickswell opened the scoring in the second half with a well-taken goal after fifteen minutes of play. Old Christians scored 1-1 during the course of the second half, to bring their tally to 3-4 as against 2-0 for Patrickswell.

Brendan Skelly played a captain's part at centrefield, playing tremendous hurling over the hour. It was one of his best club displays so far. Not far behind him was Kieran Raelis, their full forward, who is one of their most improved players. Tommy Kennedy, who normally plays in a forward position, was simply a revelation at left-half back.

Scorers for Old Christians were: K. Canty, 2-2; P. Fogarty, 1-1; K. McNamara, 0-1.

Old Christians line-out: J. Canty, M. Manning, M. Quinlivan, M. Costelloe, M. O'Sullivan, J. Cavanagh, T. Kennedy, K.

Tangney, K. McNamara, C. Hannon, K. Raelis, D. Fitzgerald. Sub.: T. Madden for D. Fitzgerald.

The club wishes Mrs. J. Flanagan a speedy recovery from a recent illness.
